

The Parish of St. Paul, Wokingham

“The sacrifice of God is a broken spirit:
a broken and contrite heart, O God,
thou wilt not despise.” Psalm 51.17

The Gathering

In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Greeting

Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you: and also with you.

Words of welcome and an introduction follow, as we recognise our need of God's mercy, grace and healing and prepare to step into a season of honest reflection and transformation.

The Collect

The Lord be with you: and also with you.
Let us pray for grace to keep Lent faithfully.
A moment of silent prayer follows.

Almighty and everlasting God,
you hate nothing you have made and forgive the sins of all who are penitent:
Create and make in us new and contrite hearts,
that we, worthily lamenting our sins
and acknowledging our wretchedness,
may obtain of you, the God of all mercy,
perfect remission and forgiveness;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

The Reading

We sit for the reading from the Old or New Testament.
This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading

When the Gospel is announced Glory to you, O Lord.
At the end of the Gospel reading Praise to you, O Christ.

A Meditation and Reflection on this Holy Day

The Liturgy of Penitence

Let us now call to mind our sin and the infinite mercy of God.

The Litany follows:

God the Father, have mercy on us.

God the Son, have mercy on us.

God the Holy Spirit, have mercy on us.

Holy, blessed and glorious Trinity, have mercy on us.

From all evil and mischief;
from pride, vanity, and hypocrisy;
from envy, hatred, and malice;
and from all evil intent,
Good Lord, deliver us.

A number of petitions follow, all with the response

Good Lord, deliver us.

The Litany concludes

Give us true repentance;
forgive us our sins of negligence and ignorance
and our deliberate sins;
and grant us the grace of your Holy Spirit
to amend our lives according to your holy word.
Holy God, holy and strong,
holy and immortal, have mercy upon us.

After a period of silence

Make our hearts clean, O God, and renew a right spirit within us.

Father eternal, giver of light and grace,
we have sinned against you and against our neighbour,
in what we have thought, in what we have said
and done, and in the good we have not done,
through ignorance, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.

We have wounded your love,
and marred your image in us.

We are sorry and ashamed, and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
who died for us, forgive us all that is past;
and lead us out from darkness
to walk as children of light. Amen.

The Imposition of Earth

I remember that I am dust and to dust I will return.

I will turn away from sin and be faithful to Christ.

[or, on another's forehead]

Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return.

Turn away from sin and be faithful to Christ.

We wash our hands carefully while music starts.

May the Lord enrich us with his grace,
and nourish us with his blessing;
the Lord defend us in trouble and keep us from all evil;
the Lord accept our prayers, [Priest] and absolve you + from your offences,
for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Saviour. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace

Since we are justified by faith,
we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,
who has given us access to his grace.

The peace of the Lord be always with you: and also with you.

*During the peace we hold out Christ's peace to one another, picturing the whole people of God gathered together in this moment.
Do please put your message in the comment box on YouTube.*

The Preparation of the Gifts

Pray my brothers and sisters, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God the almighty Father.

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands,
for the praise and glory of his Name,
for our good and the good of all his church.

Lord, help us to resist temptation
by our Lenten works of charity and penance.
By this sacrifice may we be prepared to celebrate the death and resurrection of Christ our Saviour and be cleansed from sin and renewed in spirit.
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Eucharistic Prayer

The Lord be with you: and also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The priest says the Eucharistic Preface, reminding us of God's grace and actions. Then we say together

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest!

+ Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest!

We praise and bless you, loving Father,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord;
and as we obey his command, send your Holy Spirit,
that broken bread and wine outpoured
may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you.

He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

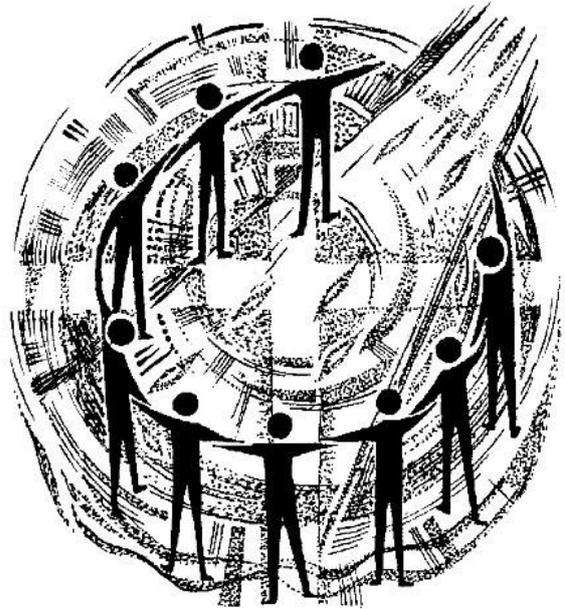

When supper was ended he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.
So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did,
in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice
made once for all upon the cross.
Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation,
we proclaim his death and resurrection
until he comes in glory.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus!
Dying you destroyed our death!
Rising you restored our life!
Lord Jesus, come in glory!

...through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours,
O loving Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Lord Jesus, remember us in your Kingdom and teach us to pray
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day
our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread.
Every time we eat this bread and drink this cup
we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

The Agnus Dei

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world,
grant us peace.

The Invitation to Communion

This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word and I shall be healed.

Christ is in our midst.

He is and always will be.

The celebrant will say "The Body of Christ, broken for you" at the altar, and then "The Blood of Christ, shed for you."

You might find this a helpful prayer to use:

Thanks be to you, Lord, Jesus Christ,
for all the benefits you have given me,
for all the pains and insults you have borne for me.
Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.
O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother,
may I know you more clearly, love you more dearly
and follow you more nearly, day by day. Amen.

Post Communion Prayer

God of our pilgrimage,
you have fed us with the bread of heaven.
Refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Dismissal

The Blessing of the Ashes Cards

God our Father,
you create us from the dust of the earth:
bless these ashes that they may be for us
a sign of our penitence and a symbol of our mortality;
for it is by your grace alone that we receive eternal life in Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

The Blessing

The Lord be with you: and also with you.

May God the Father,
who does not despise the broken spirit,
give to you a contrite heart. Amen.

May Christ,
who bore our sins in his body on the tree,
heal you by his wounds. Amen.

May the Holy Spirit,
who leads us into all truth,
speak to you words of pardon and peace. Amen.

And the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

The Lenten Wreath

The Lenten Wreath is a St Paul's tradition, and works like a reversed Advent Wreath. In Advent the light builds and gathers to show that the birth of Jesus is getting nearer- in Lent, the darkness gathers as, candle after candle, the lit candles are extinguished until the last one is put out on Good Friday itself.

As we journey into Lent, may we do justice,
love mercy and walk humbly with you our God. Amen.

The Dismissal

The Mass is ended. Our Lenten pilgrimage has begun.
Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
In the name of Christ. Amen!

*The Organ Voluntary is part of our offering of worship.
Please pray during it and enjoy the stillness of this moment.*

The Call to Keep a Godly and faithful Lent

Brothers and sisters in Christ: since early days Christians have observed with great devotion the time of our Lord's passion and resurrection and prepared for this by a season of penitence and fasting. By carefully keeping these days, Christians take to heart the call to repentance and the assurance of forgiveness proclaimed in the gospel, and so grow in faith and in devotion to our Lord. I invite you, therefore, in the name of the Church, to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy word.

Two Prayers of Reflection

We do not presume to come to this your table,
merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in your manifold and great mercies.

We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table. But you are the same Lord whose nature is always to have mercy.

Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh
of your dear Son Jesus Christ and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body
and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Prayer of Humble Access

Father in Heaven,
protect us in our struggle against evil.
As we begin the discipline of Lent,
make this season holy by our self-denial.
Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit
one God, for ever and ever.
