

The Parish of St Paul, Wokingham

Parish Mass during Eastertide

During the Eucharist we:

- ❖ gather together as one family
- ❖ say sorry for our sins and receive God's forgiveness
- ❖ proclaim and respond to the word of God
- ❖ remember before God the Church and the world
- ❖ share in the peace of Christ
- ❖ pray and share in the Eucharistic Prayer
- ❖ depart with the blessing of God, to live lives to his glory.

Eastertide is a season of joyful reflection on the Resurrection of Jesus, and the difference that amazing truth makes to our lives today.

Our service is laden with reminders of Easter - we take every opportunity to say Alleluia; the Paschal candle (first lit on Easter Day and used at every baptism) stands in a place of honour; above all, the Gospel readings and the sections from the Acts of the Apostles which we read throughout the season of Easter tell the story of how the Risen Christ met and inspired his followers to live lives to his glory, as he does today with us.

*After the Sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb.
And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it.
His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow.
For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men.
But the angel said to the women, 'Do not be afraid;
I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified.
He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said.'*
Matthew 28.1-6

*"Public was death; but Power, but Might,
but Life again, but Victory, were hushed within the dead of night,
the shuttered dark, the secrecy.
And all alone, alone, alone,
He rose again behind the stone."
Easter Night, by Alice Meynell*

The Gathering

Opening Hymn

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Alleluia. Christ is risen.

He is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
He has given us new life. He has given us new hope.

He has raised Jesus from the dead.

God has claimed us as his own.

He has brought us out of darkness.

He has made us light to the world.

Alleluia. Christ is risen.

He is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Words of welcome and introduction follow.

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Prayer of Penitence:

we say sorry for the things we've done wrong

Christ our Passover lamb has been sacrificed for us.
Let us therefore rejoice by putting away all malice and evil and confessing our sins with a sincere and true heart.

(Either)

Like John and Peter at the empty tomb, we fail to grasp the wonder of your Resurrection.

Lord, have mercy: Lord have mercy.

Like the disciples behind locked doors,
we are afraid to be seen as your followers.

Christ have mercy: Christ have mercy.

Like Thomas in the upper room, we are slow to believe.

Lord, have mercy: Lord have mercy.

(or)

God our Father, long-suffering, full of grace and truth,

you create us from nothing and give us life.

You do not turn your face from us, nor cast us aside.

We confess that we have sinned against you and our neighbour.

We have wounded your love and marred your image in us.

Restore us for the sake of your Son, and bring us to heavenly joy,

in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Kyries,

from the Mass of Villerville by Chris Merchant

Lord, have mercy: Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy: Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy: Lord, have mercy.

The Absolution: God's promise of forgiveness

May the Father of all mercies
+ cleanse you from your sin, and restore you in his image to the praise and glory of his name,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria in Excelsis: a song of praise to God for his wonderful goodness, from the Mass of Villerville

Glory to God in the Highest, and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, Almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world;
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the most high, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the Glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect:

a prayer which sets the theme for the day

Wherever we are, we meet in the name of Jesus Christ, our Risen Lord, present in every place and time as our friend and brother.

(Either the Collect of the day, or)

God of glory, by the raising of your Son you have broken the chains of death and hell:
fill your church with faith and hope;
for a new day has dawned and the way to life stands open in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

A Reading from the Bible

This is the word of the Lord: thanks be to God.

The Gospel: a reading from Jesus' life

We stand to face the Gospel.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to N

Glory to you, O Lord.

At the end the minister says:

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

The Sermon: we consider what God is saying to us in the readings

The Creed: we state what we believe

Let us declare our faith in the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Do you believe and trust in God the Father, source of all being and life, the one for whom we exist?

I believe and trust in him.

Do you believe and trust in God the Son, who took our human nature, died for us and rose again?

I believe and trust in him.

Do you believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit, who gives life to the people of God and makes Christ known in the world?

I believe and trust in him.

This is the faith of the Church.

This is our faith.

We believe and trust in one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The Prayers of Intercession

(The prayers may conclude with)

Merciful Father: accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace of Christ

(Either)

Hear the Good News:

the grave is empty, Christ is risen. Alleluia

Hear the Good News: the light shines in the darkness and the darkness can never put it out. Alleluia.

Hear the Good News: once we were no people, now we are God's people. Alleluia.

Christ is our peace, the perfect, unconquerable peace in which we share.

(Or)

Early in the morning, as the mist lifted from the soil, Mary Magdalene and Jesus met. Jesus called her by her name, and all of her fears and mourning were driven from her heart by his risen presence. And so it is for us today, his redeemed, Easter people. We meet in his name and we share in his peace.

The peace of the Risen and Glorious Lord be always with you:
and also with you.

During the peace we hold out Christ's peace to one another, picturing the whole people of God gathered together in this moment.

Do please put your message in the comment box on YouTube, or text a friend, whether you are in Church or at home.

The Lord is risen! He is risen indeed!

Offertory Hymn

The Preparation of the Gifts

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation.

In your loving care you spread before us the table of life and give us the cup of salvation to drink.

Keep us always in the fold of our Saviour and our Shepherd, your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Blessed be God for ever.

Pray, my brothers and sisters, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God the Almighty Father.

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands, for the praise and glory of his Name, for our good and the good of all his Church.

Be present, be present, Lord Jesus Christ, our risen high priest:
and make yourself known in the breaking of the bread.

The Eucharistic Prayer (E)

The Lord be with you:

and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give thanks and praise.

The Eucharistic Prayer, which remembers all Jesus has done for us and asks him to fill our hearts and lives with his love, continues.

Then the Choir sing:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.

+ Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna in the highest.

*Then, after we remember the words Jesus used at the Last Supper:
(Either)*

Praise to you, Lord Jesus:

Dying you destroyed our death,
rising you restored our life,
Lord Jesus, come in glory.

(or)

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

The Eucharistic Prayer climaxes:

...Father almighty, in songs of everlasting praise:

Blessing and honour and glory and power be yours for ever and ever. Amen.

(or, simply)

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Rejoicing in God's new creation,
as our Saviour taught us, so we pray:

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

Agnus Dei (Lamb of God)

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, grant us peace.

Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

Christ is in our midst. He is and always will be.

If you usually receive communion in your own church, or you have done so in the past, you are most welcome to receive communion on this most holy day.

If you would prefer to receive a prayer of blessing please bring this order of service with you to the front.

If you're at home, please use this time to talk to the Risen Christ- heart touching heart.

Do use this prayer if you find it helpful, and do enjoy the music which will be offered at this point in the service as an aid to prayer and worship.

Thanks be to you, Lord, Jesus Christ,
for all the benefits you have given me,
for all the pains and insults you have borne for me.
Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.
O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother,
may I know you more clearly, love you more dearly and follow you more nearly, day by day. Amen.

Post- Communion Prayer:

we thank God for his love, revealed in this feast

An Organ Voluntary

The Dismissal: we turn to face the West End of Church, as we are sent into the world to live lives to God's glory

Alleluia, Christ is risen. He is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Let us then go in peace to love and serve the Risen Lord.

Alleluia, Alleluia!

In the name of Christ. Alleluia, Alleluia!

Those who are present in Church are then invited to sing the final hymn in the Churchyard if the weather is kind.

If you're at home, please make a drink and then join in with the Zoom Coffee or call someone from Church or someone from further away- have a chat, as you normally would over coffee.
