MUSICAL EXPERIENCE

4 What the scholarship involves

Choral scholars receive singing lessons and musical training; work towards examined singing awards; normally make two cathedral trips each year; and are paid for each service they sing.

We ask scholars to:

- ☐ attend Wednesday evening rehearsals regularly;
- ☐ sing at least seven services each term, normally on Sunday mornings;
- ☐ arrive punctually, be ready to learn and treat other choir members kindly;
- ☐ take part in lessons and training, and practise between sessions when asked.

In return we will:

- ☐ support scholars with regular singing lessons;
- ☐ pay scholars for singing in services and attending rehearsals (£1.50 primary, £3 secondary);
- ☐ enter scholars into RSCM Singing Award exams when ready;
- ☐ take scholars free of charge on choir trips, such as singing in cathedrals (normally twice a year).
