St Paul's Church, Wokingham
St Nicholas' Church, Emmbrook

Welcome to this house of prayer. We are a Church family committed to welcoming all those who come as God's precious and beloved child, whatever their age or race, sexuality or experience, background or confidence in Church. We only become the Church God is calling us to be when everybody is made welcome and everybody is free to contribute and join in.

Anybody, of any age, who has been baptised in any Christian Church, is warmly invited to receive the Eucharist here. You are welcome to receive the bread and the wine, or, if you prefer, to take the bread only.

Communion can be received either at the altar rail or in your pew. Please tell the priest if you need a gluten-free wafer. If you would prefer to receive a prayer of blessing please come forward with everyone else and keep your head bowed at the rail. If you would like to receive communion or a blessing in the pew, please tell one of the welcomers (the people wearing name badges). Welcome home.

Collect Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and Fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Post Communion God, the source of all holiness and giver of all good things: may we who have shared at this table as strangers and pilgrims here on earth be welcomed with all your saints to the heavenly feast on the day of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Notices

All Souls' Day

We will be holding a service for All Souls today at 6.15pm, to pray for all those we love who have died. There are sheets in the back of church this morning for you to write down any names of those you would like remembered. Please write their name clearly and also phonetically if needed. The service will be followed by light refreshments in the Parish Rooms.

As we have done in previous years, we would like to display candles in the churchyard. If you are able to come along a little early and help place the candles on and around the graves, please meet in the church porch at 4.30pm.

Sacristy Remembrance-tide Appeal

The Sacristy Fund is again in need of replenishment and there is a list of requirements at the back of church. If you would like to help, please sign up for an item (or two!) and make your donation either using the card reader, BACs transfer or cash (in an envelope labelled Sacristy Fund please). Many thanks

Autumn Bazaar – Saturday 8th November 12-3pm

The choir is running the Tombola and would be grateful to receive donations of suitable items such as bottles, cans, packets, toiletries, sweets etc. Please hand them to members of the choir or put in the box labelled Tombola at the back of church

Tina Selwyn-Smith is running a stall dedicated to jigsaw puzzles. If you would like to donate a jigsaw, then pass onto Tina or Jerome after the 9:30am service on Sunday or leave at the back of the church. If necessary, Tina may be able to pick up from anywhere in the Parish – contact Tina on 0118 979 2819.

Grand Draw tickets are on sale now, available from Liz Gallagher or Teri Austen. We would be grateful for donations for the hampers or other prizes – see the sign-up sheet at the back of church and give any items to either Liz or Teri.

We would be most grateful for saleable items for the Bric a Brac stall. It is helpful to have donations beforehand where possible, although donations on the day are also welcome. Please contact Elizabeth Hunter (0118 978326 / 07956 280413) if you need items to be collected from you or if you have large items to donate.

Calling all bakers The Social Committee will be offering light lunches, coffees and teas at the Autumn bazaar and would be very grateful for donations of cake. The Mothers' Union will also have goodies on their stall so any extra baked goods would go to a good home. If you are unable to deliver them to the parish rooms on the day of the bazaar, they can be dropped off to Trish or myself the day before, or delivery by mutual arrangement. Thank you. Teri Austen (teri@theaustens.uk)

Dawn and Penny are running the book stall at the Bazaar. Please could you donate books that are in good condition, books you have loved reading and books your children have loved. Thank you
